INTERESTING STORY TOLD BY AN INMATE OF THE LOUISE HOME.

Great Sufferer for Years—Treated by Physicians Without Success—How She was Relieved.

[From the Washington Post.]

The so-called ethics of the medical profession are peculiar unto themselves. They would prevent a physician from prescribing or using a patent medicine or anything bearing a semblance to such even though it was known that the medicine was an infallible specific for the disease under treatment.

For instance there is a remedy now on the market which was a prescription compounded by a most eminent physician and used for years in general practice; now called Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Their remarkable power in curing the most stubborn ailments to which man is heir, resulted in their being prepared and sold in their present shape. Since then scarcely a day has passed without the record of a marvelous cure being placed to their credit. Among the many cases reported is one of local interest.

Mrs. Ann Atkinson, 33 years old, an inmate of the Louise Home, Washington, D. C., has been restored to almost perfect health, after many years of suffering with one of the most painful illnesses known. She volunteered the following facts for the benefit of her fellow sufferers:

I was born in King George county, Va., on a plantation about twenty miles from Fredericksburg, in February, 1810. Eight years ago I was attacked by a negro who made a grab for a little satchel I was carrying on my arm. In the struggle which followed the man knocked me down and dragged me along the ground for a distance of 40 feet. After securing the satchel he ran off and I was picked up and carried to the Home. An ugly gash over my left eye was sewed up and my left arm, which was dislocated, was set. As a result of my experience, congestion of the brain and nervous prostration followed. I was so nervous I could not bear even the noises of the Home and I was removed to a quiet spot in the country where I regained a portion of my former health. "The shock to my nervous system, however, has weakened my former excellent constitution, and its effects began to tell upon me in my daily life. The physicians attached to the Home did all they could to relieve me, but to no avail. I was almost entirely cured. In addition to this I had sinking spells with palpitation of heart and shortness of the breath which not only alarmed me but caused me much annoyance. Severe pains in my back appeared and altogether this old frame was in a pitiful condition. In the meantime the physicians were treating me with powerful nerve tonics. About this time I noticed severe pains in my right arm which extended from the shoulder to below the elbow and then worked back again to the neck threatening my head. This I recognized as rheumatism.

"I read in the Episcopal Recorder, a religious paper published in Philadelphia, of the marvelous cure of a person who had my symptoms to a dot. I sent for two boxes which were furnished promptly. From the start I began taking them according to directions and almost immediately experienced relief. Before the bottom of the second box was reached I was almost entirely cured. However, like Rory O'More, I believe in odd numbers and I sent for the third box which cured me entirely. The rheumatism disappeared and my right arm was free from pain while I could use it to write at any or all times. The dizziness and palpitation of the heart were gone and I was a well man again. Since taking the last box I have not had an ache nor a pain. I freely assert that these wonderful Pink Pills for Pale People, and nothing else, effected this marvelous cure, and I am grateful for the Providential manner by which my attention was first directed towards them."

WASHINGTON, May 20, 1893. DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, } ss. CITY OF WASHINGTON, } ss. Personally appeared before me this day Mrs. Ann Atkinson, who being sworn deposes and says that the above statements are correct in all details. ANN ATKINSON. Sworn to and subscribed before me this 20th day of May, A. D., 1893. FRANK B. MARLOW, Notary Public, J. C.

The discoverer of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People deserves the highest tribute that can be framed. His medicine has done more to alleviate the sufferings of humanity than any medicine known to science, and his name should be handed down to future generations as the greatest savior of the present age.

The proprietors of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills state that they are an unfailing blood builder and nerve restorer, curing all forms of weakness arising from a watery condition of the blood or shattered nervous system. It is a full course of almost every ill that flesh is heir to. The pills are also a specific for the troubles peculiar to females, such as suppression, all forms of weakness, chronic constipation, bearing down pains, etc., and in the case of men will give speedy relief and effect a permanent cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork, or excesses of what-ever nature. The pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent post-paid on receipt of price (50 cents a box, they are never sold in bulk or by the 100), by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 501 Broadway, N. Y., or Brockville, Ontario.
